

Interview 1: Five N-400 Questions and Five Civics Questions

Vocabulary:

Citizen
 Married
 Month

Name
 Permanent Resident
 President

The Constitution
 Vote
 Year

Write the correct vocabulary under each picture.

1.	2.	3.

4.	5.	6.

7.	8.	9.

Vocabulary:

Citizen	Name	The Constitution
Married	Permanent Resident	Vote
Month	President	Year

Write the vocabulary next to the definition.

1. _____ : 365 days or 12 months.
Example: I came to the United States in 2012 and have been a Legal Permanent Resident for 5 years.
2. _____ : One of the 12 parts of the year. Most months have 30 or 31 days. February has 28 or 29 days.
Example: We vote for the President in November.
3. _____ : The highest law in the United States.
Example: The Constitution is the supreme law of the land.
4. _____ : To choose a leader or law.
Example: We vote for the President every four years.
5. _____ : The leader of the United States.
Example: The President is the leader of the United States.
6. _____ : The words people use to call or talk about you.
Example: In China, people called me Chen Fu-Chiu. My family name is Chen. My given name is Fu-Chiu. In the United States, people call me Fu-Chiu Chen. My first name is Fu-Chiu. I don't have a middle name. My last name is Chen.
7. _____ : To be someone's husband or wife according to the law.
Example: I have been married to my husband for three years.
8. _____ : A person who is not a US citizen that the US government says can live in the United States.
Example: I am a Legal Permanent Resident. I have lived in the US since 2012.
9. _____ : A person who was born in a country or became a member through the law (naturalization).
Example: My husband is a citizen. We have been married for 3 years. I have been a permanent resident for 3 years. Now I am studying to become a citizen.